1. A special branch of the Public Security (VB) is attached to the Communist Party Headquarters at the Central Communist Party Secretariat offices on Na prikope in Prague. Its assignment is to provide guards for this office. The station is located in the middle of the arcade that connects Celetna Street with Na prikope.
2. An StB office and passport office is located on Konviktska Street, which leads to Betlemske namesti. It is housed in a four-story building, which is the west wing of the Public Health Department of Prague. The passport office is overtly operated by the Public Security, but in actual fact is subordinate to the StB. It occupies the first, second, and third floors. The StB offices proper are on the fourth floor.
3. The Regional Public Security Headquarters for the City of Prague (Praha Mesto) are located in Prague-Nové Mesto, in the vicinity of the Namesti Republiky, on the corner of Hyborska and Schovazna streets. The offices are in a four-story building, which used to be the Labor Exchange, and, still earlier, the Hotel de Saxo.
4. District Headquarters of Public Security in Prague II are located in a five-story building about half way down the east side of Krakovska Street, which leads to Václavské namesti.
5. The local Public Security station in Prague II is on Jindřická Street, a few steps to the northeast of Nekazanka Street. It is located in a five-story building on the west side of the street.
6. The District Headquarters of Public Security for Prague-Holesovice are on the east side of Na Maninách Street, to the south of the end of Delnicka trida.
7. The District Headquarters of Public Security for Prague-Karlín are in a five-story building on the south side of Krizkova Street, near the head office of the State Railroads.
